Lovingly grown by Afghan women

Benazir Yakta Trading Company Profile

Benazir Yakta is more than just a name—it is a symbol of hope, resilience, and the unwavering strength of women who rise above adversity to craft meaning into every grain and every bite.

Each of our products tells a true story — a story of women who grow with love, harvest with care, and deliver with pride.

At Benazir Yakta, we believe trade is more than business; it's a bridge between hearts, cultures, and dreams.

Benazir Yakta – From roots of tradition to global taste, lovingly grown by Afghan women.

Benazir Yakta Trading Company – Background and history:

Benazir Yakta Trading Company was registered with the Ministry of Industry and Commerce of Afghanistan in 2017 and has since established itself as a pioneering enterprise in the export sector, securing a distinguished position in international markets. The company is an active member of the Afghanistan Women's Chamber of Commerce and Industry, the Afghanistan Chamber of Commerce and Industries, and the Afghanistan International Chamber of Commerce, consistently playing a crucial role in promoting and advancing women-led businesses in Afghanistan.

Benazir Yakta Trading Company was the first women-led enterprise to utilize the air corridor for exporting fresh and dried fruits from Afghanistan, contributing significantly to the global presence of Afghan products. Due to its outstanding contributions to the export industry, the company was recognized as the Best Woman in Export and, for two consecutive years, was awarded the second and third positions as Afghanistan's Best Exporter of the Year by the Afghanistan Chamber of Commerce and Industries.

The company has proudly represented Afghanistan at major international conferences, including the Regional Economic Cooperation Conference on Afghanistan (RECCA). It has also participated in numerous prestigious international trade exhibitions, such as Gulfood Dubai, Global Village Dubai, and trade fairs in India, China, Turkmenistan, Kazakhstan, Pakistan and Uzbekistan, where it showcased Afghan products and explored new export opportunities.

Benazir Yakta Trading Company has established representative offices in the United Kingdom, Dubai, and India and collaborates with 20 contracted farmers across various provinces of Afghanistan. In its commitment to women's economic empowerment, the company has provided employment to 20 full-time female workers and 80 seasonal female workers.

With a strong focus on expanding exports, enhancing supply chain efficiency, and empowering women economically, Benazir Yakta Trading Company has become a key player in international markets and continues to introduce high-quality Afghan products to global consumers.

Mission

To enhance global access to premium Afghan agricultural products, while empowering women economically and championing ethical, sustainable business practices. As we remain rooted in our environment, we continue to honor and value the role of agriculture in building a better, more inclusive future.

Vision

Services

Fresh Fruits Supplying

Benazir Yakta Trading Company proudly sources a wide variety of fresh fruits directly from trusted local farmers across Afghanistan. Through strong partnerships with growers known for their high-quality produce, we ensure that our customers consistently receive fresh, ripe, and naturally flavorful fruits. Our commitment to freshness and quality is at the heart of everything we deliver.

Dried Fruits Supplying

Benazir Yakta Trading Company specializes in sourcing and processing premium-quality dried fruits, handpicked from Afghanistan's finest orchards. Each batch undergoes strict quality control to preserve natural flavor, texture, and nutritional value. Our dried fruits reflect the rich agricultural heritage of Afghanistan and are carefully packaged to meet international standards, ensuring freshness and excellence in every bite.

Spices Supplying

Benazir Yakta Trading Company offers a rich selection of high-quality Afghan spices, sourced from trusted growers and traditional spice regions across the country. From aromatic cumin to vibrant saffron, each spice is carefully selected, cleaned, and packaged to preserve its natural aroma and flavor. Our spices reflect the essence of Afghan culinary heritage and are prepared with care to meet the demands of global markets.

Fresh/dried fruits Sorting Solutions

We take pride in delivering only the finest quality Afghan fresh and dried fruits to our valued customers. Once the produce is sourced directly from local farmers, it goes through a careful sorting and grading process. Our trained team evaluates each fruit based on quality, size, texture, color, and ripeness. This meticulous process ensures that only top-grade fruits are selected for packaging and export, meeting both domestic and international quality standards.

Our commitment to excellence at every stage guarantees customer satisfaction and helps us build lasting trust in global markets.

Spices Sorting Solutions

At Benazir Yakta Trading Company, quality begins with precision. Once spices are sourced from trusted Afghan farmers, they undergo a meticulous sorting, cleaning, and grading process. Our skilled team uses both traditional expertise and modern techniques to remove impurities such as dust, stones, and broken particles. Every batch is evaluated based on purity, size, color, aroma, and essential oil content to ensure consistency and excellence.

We follow strict hygiene protocols and international food safety standards to preserve the natural richness, aroma, and potency of Afghan spices. This guarantees that our customers receive only the finest, most authentic spices, ready for local markets and global export.

With a deep respect for Afghanistan's agricultural heritage and a commitment to empowering local farmers, we deliver spices that truly represent the taste and soul of Afghanistan.

Packaging and packing

At Benazir Yakta Trading Company, all fresh and dried fruits, as well as spices, are carefully packed using high-quality, food-grade materials. Each product is weighed precisely and sealed in durable, protective packaging to ensure freshness, hygiene, and safety during transportation. Our packaging not only preserves the natural quality of our goods but also meets international export standards.

We pride ourselves on offering tailored solutions that meet their unique requirements. Our modern packaging and distribution facilities allow us to deliver products efficiently and promptly, ensuring freshness and top-tier quality every time.

Beyond our local partnerships, we are also focused on expanding our global reach. We continuously explore new markets and opportunities to bring our premium products to customers around the world.

At Benazir Yakta Trading Company, we believe that our success is directly linked to the success of our partners. We are fully dedicated to supporting their growth and long-term development. As we look toward the future, we are excited to continue building strong partnerships and reaching new heights—together.

How we work:

At Benazir Yakta Trading Company, our work is deeply rooted in purpose, quality, and long-term partnerships. We are more than just a trading business—we are a mission-driven enterprise that aims to bring the best of Afghanistan's natural produce to the world while creating lasting impact for local communities. Our approach is grounded in strategic planning and thoughtful execution. From the earliest stages of product development—sourcing premium raw materials, designing attractive packaging, and crafting product blends—to the final stages of customer service and delivery, we ensure that every step reflects our core values. We take pride in building meaningful relationships—with the farmers who grow our products, the employees who prepare them, and the partners and customers who trust our quality. Every decision we make is guided by a commitment to excellence, transparency, and mutual growth. Our goal is not only to deliver high-quality goods, but to create a legacy of trust and innovation that stands the test of time.

Direct Sourcing from Farmers

We work directly with farmers across different provinces of Afghanistan, selecting only the finest raw materials. This not only ensures high-quality produce but also supports local communities and farmers.

Product Development

We continuously develop and improve our product range based on market trends and customer feedback. Our team researches new flavors, blends, and packaging ideas to meet both local and international demands.

Efficient Delivery

We deliver our products using a reliable logistics system, including refrigerated vehicles for sensitive items. Our priority is to ensure that products reach customers on time and in perfect condition.

Maintaining Quality & Relationships

We maintain high-quality standards through rigorous inspections, hygiene protocols, and packaging solutions. At the same time, we nurture long-term relationships with our customers by listening to their needs and offering tailored solutions.

Innovation & Growth

We embrace innovation in processing, packaging, and marketing. Our goal is not just to sell products but to grow together with our partners and expand into new markets with confidence and purpose.

Fresh Fruits Supplying

Afghan Apples – A Taste of Nature’s Perfection:

Afghan apples are among the finest and most flavorful fruits in the region, widely cultivated in provinces such as Maidan Wardak, Ghazni, Badakhshan, Logar, Daykundi and Bamyan. The ideal climate and fertile soil of these areas give Afghan apples their unique natural aroma, sweet taste, and crisp texture. Loved both locally and internationally, these apples reflect the richness of Afghanistan’s agricultural heritage and the unmatched quality of its natural produce.

Afghan Apricots – Golden Gems of the Highlands:

Afghan apricots are a true gift of nature, grown in the sun-kissed valleys and highlands of provinces such as Bamyan, Daykundi, Ghazni, Maidan Wardak Kapisa, Badghis, and Samangan. These apricots are known for their vibrant color, juicy texture, and naturally sweet flavor. Rich in nutrients and full of aroma, Afghan apricots are cherished both as a fresh delight and a dried delicacy across the world. Their exceptional quality reflects the beauty of Afghanistan’s land and the dedication of its farmers.

Afghan Cherries – Nature’s Scarlet Treasure:

Afghan cherries, with their deep red hue and irresistible sweetness, are among the most cherished summer fruits grown in the fertile orchards of provinces like Wardak, Kabul, Parwan, and Ghazni. These cherries are known for their juicy texture, rich flavor, and refreshing taste that perfectly captures the essence of Afghan soil and sun. Whether enjoyed fresh or used in desserts and preserves, Afghan cherries bring a burst of flavor that delights both local and international markets.

Afghan Grapes – Sweet Jewels of the Vine:

Afghan grapes are a symbol of the country’s rich agricultural legacy, grown abundantly in sun-drenched vineyards across provinces like Kandahar, Herat, Kabul, and Samangan. Known for their natural sweetness, juicy flesh, and variety of colors—from green and red to deep purple—these grapes are enjoyed fresh and dried as premium raisins. Their exceptional quality and flavor make Afghan grapes a prized export, reflecting the care of local farmers and the blessings of Afghanistan’s fertile lands.

Afghan Pomegranates – The Crown Jewel of Afghan Orchards:

Afghan pomegranates are celebrated worldwide for their vibrant ruby-red seeds, rich flavor, and remarkable health benefits. Grown primarily in the sun-drenched orchards of Kandahar, Helmand, Farah, and Nangarhar, these fruits are known for their perfect balance of sweetness and tang. Each pomegranate is a testament to the fertility of Afghan soil and the dedication of its farmers. Whether enjoyed fresh or as juice, Afghan pomegranates captivate both the eye and the palate, making them one of Afghanistan’s most prized exports.

Dried Fruits Supplying

Almonds (Shakhbuz) – The World's Finest in Quality and Taste:

Afghanistan's Shakhbuz almonds are widely regarded as some of the best almonds in the world. Grown naturally in the central province of Afghanistan, particularly in Daykundi Province, these premium almonds are celebrated for their excellent flavor, soft shells, and complete absence of bitterness. Renowned across South Asia and the Middle East, they are a top choice for discerning buyers. What sets Afghan Shakhbuz almonds apart is their natural purity—cultivated and harvested without the use of chemicals, additives, or artificial ingredients. They offer an authentic, traditional taste with no off-odors, making them ideal for export markets that value quality and health-conscious production.

Almonds (Shakhbuz) – Top Quality Export Product:

Afghan Shakhbuz almonds are among the finest in the world, known for their exceptional taste, soft shells, and complete absence of bitterness. Grown in the central province of Afghanistan specifically in Daykundi Province—these almonds are naturally cultivated and traditionally harvested, offering a rich, authentic flavor with no off-odors.

Shahristani Almond – A Signature Taste of Afghanistan:

Shahristani almonds are a distinguished variety of Afghan almonds, renowned for their exceptional flavor and rich nutritional value. Grown primarily in the highlands of Shahristan district in Daykundi Province, these almonds are naturally cultivated using traditional farming methods passed down through generations. What makes Shahristani almonds truly special is their unique balance of sweetness, natural aroma.

Walnuts – A Natural Treasure of the Mountains:

Afghan walnuts are prized for their rich flavor, high oil content, and premium quality. Grown in the cool, mountainous regions of central and northeastern Afghanistan—particularly in provinces like Daykundi, Bamyan, Badakhshan, and Panjshir—these walnuts develop a full, buttery taste and light-colored kernels that are highly sought after in both domestic and international markets.

What sets Afghan walnuts apart is their natural cultivation—free from any chemical fertilizers or pesticides. The traditional harvesting and sun-drying methods preserve their natural nutrition, ensuring a product that is both healthy and delicious.

Black Raisins – Nature’s Sweet Delight

Afghan black raisins are among the finest in the world, known for their deep color, natural sweetness, and chewy texture. Grown in the sun-drenched vineyards of Afghanistan—especially in regions like Kandahar, Herat, Mazar Sharif and Ghazni—these raisins are made by sun-drying naturally ripened grapes, without the use of any chemicals or preservatives. Rich in antioxidants, fiber, iron, and natural sugars, black raisins are a healthy and energizing snack. Their intense flavor and soft texture make them ideal for direct consumption, as well as for use in baking, cooking, and traditional sweets. What makes Afghan black raisins stand out is the traditional drying process under the warm Afghan sun, which enhances their flavor and preserves their nutrients. They are a symbol of Afghanistan’s rich agricultural heritage and are widely appreciated in international markets for their purity and superior quality.

Green Raisins – A Taste of Purity and Tradition:

Afghan green raisins are known for their vibrant color, elongated shape, and naturally sweet taste. Grown in the fertile valleys of Afghanistan—particularly in provinces like Qandahar, Herat, Samangan, and Takhar—these raisins are made from carefully selected green grapes that are dried in the shade using traditional methods that preserve their color, flavor, and nutritional value. Free from artificial additives and chemical treatments, Afghan green raisins are a 100% natural product. They are rich in antioxidants, fiber, and essential minerals, making them a healthy choice for snacking or use in cooking, desserts, and traditional dishes.

The unique drying process gives these raisins their distinct green hue and chewy texture. Highly valued in both local and international markets, Afghan green raisins are a symbol of quality, heritage, and the skilled craftsmanship of Afghan farmers.

Red Raisins – Naturally Sweet and Rich in Flavor

Afghan red raisins are made from sun-dried red grapes grown in the fertile lands of Afghanistan. Known for their rich color, sweet taste, and soft texture, they are a healthy, natural snack. Red raisins are also a traditional ingredient in Afghan cuisine, especially used in Kabuli Palaw to add a touch of sweetness and depth of flavor.

Dried Apricot (Chapanak) – A Sweet Symbol of Afghan Orchards

Chapanak Dried apricot is a premium variety of Afghan apricot, known for its bright golden color, soft flesh, and rich, natural sweetness. Grown in the cool, mountainous regions of Daykundi and Bamyan provinces, this apricot variety is naturally cultivated without chemicals or additives.

Dried Apricots – Naturally Sweet and Nutritious

Afghan dried apricots are a traditional and beloved delicacy, made from naturally sun-dried apricots grown in the mountainous regions of Afghanistan. Known for their rich orange color, chewy texture, and sweet-tart flavor, they are free from preservatives, additives, and artificial coloring. These dried apricots are packed with nutrients—rich in fiber, antioxidants, and essential vitamins like A and E. Perfect for snacking, baking, or adding to dishes, they represent the purity and richness of Afghan agriculture.

Dried Apricot (Shakarpara) – Naturally Sweet, Soft, and Nutritious

Shakarpara is a premium variety of Afghan dried apricot, known for its soft texture, bright color, and naturally sweet taste. Grown in the cool, mountainous regions of Afghanistan and dried under the sun using traditional methods, this apricot retains its natural flavor without the use of chemicals or preservatives.

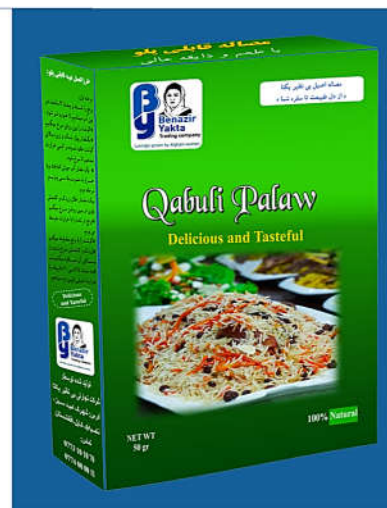

Rich in vitamins A and E, fiber, and antioxidants, Shakarpara is a healthy and delicious snack. It is widely used in Afghan households, especially in festive dishes and served with tea. Loved both locally and internationally, it represents the purity and richness of Afghanistan's natural produce.
